

Hand Over The Facts

Tuesday, April 20 • 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Altavista YMCA Community Room, 718 7th Street, Altavista

Sometimes the pain associated with crocheting a scarf or turning a screw becomes more than you can handle. And buttoning clothing is difficult or even impossible. Hand pain can eliminate the ease of daily activity. Join Drew Kiernan, M.D., with the Orthopaedic Center of Central Virginia, as he discusses in depth, carpal tunnel syndrome and hand arthritis. Learn about current evaluation and treatment options.
